Prints and Drawings

I understand that if special drawings are needed their may be additional fees and may delay building start date.

Initial

Weaver Barns can provide Basic Construction Prints and drawings if needed for their own purposes for shop prep and onsite building direction for the crews. These drawings may be sufficient for your building department to review and approve your building. These drawings are made for our purposes and are available to you at no additional Cost.

HOWEVER,

The Basic construction drawings may not be sufficient for some building departments or other code requirements. If we need to provide prints that are not our standard construction prints they can be provided for additional fees. There may be additional delays in the project start date if additional drawings are required.

Property Damage

I understand that Weaver Barns or their subcontractors are not Liable for reasonable property damage as listed below.

Initial

Weaver Barns and their subcontractors are not liable for:

- a) Any underground pipes, wires etc that we were not informed of .
- b) Any Damages to Driveways with normal constrution vehicle movements
ie. Dump Trucks, Cement Trucks, Gradalls.
- c) Reasonable Damage to lawn or landscaping due to construction vehicle movements.
